

97th Annual Banquet & Awards Award Nominations

It's time to wrap up another business partnership, growth, and community involvement throughout Page County. As we prepare for our 97th year, we welcome the community to recognize and nominate those whose businesses have continued growing and adapting to new norms throughout 2022. Once more, we will recognize 3 businesses and 1 individual for their hard work and dedication to Page County at our annual banquet and awards on Thursday, June 8th. Nominations should be turned in by 5:00 PM, on Friday, May 12th.

Agricultural/Eco-Friendly Business of the Year: This award recognizes a business that works to preserve the agricultural industry in and around Page County. Whether it be through operating with traditional or innovative farm practices or as a business that works closely with the farming community to promote "green living," this business takes pride in the condition of land, buildings, and machinery and shows leadership in the farming sector.

Hospitality Business of the Year: This award recognizes a Tourism business that focuses on every customer, client, and guest by providing exceptional hospitality service. With high standards for quality, service, and cleanliness, this business should demonstrate success and act as a role model for other businesses by exhibiting a visionary manner that goes beyond "business as usual."

Service Business of the Year: This award recognizes a business/organization providing excellent community service. This award can go to a non-profit organization, retail store, public service business, or any other business assisting the community. Whether through information, products, or experience, this business/organization should be a role model for others while keeping up with current market demands.

The Mary Lee Bryant Volunteer of the Year: This award goes to someone who has significantly contributed to the Page County community through volunteer efforts. Going above and beyond what is typically expected of a volunteer, this person displays high ethical and personal integrity and a commitment to volunteer service.

The rules for nominating are simple:

Nominees must be members of the Chamber of Commerce, except for the Mary Lee Bryant Volunteer of the Year, which is open to everyone in the county (see the Chamber's membership list at www.visitluraypage.com/chamber/directory). You may nominate any business/organization of any size in their respective category.
