Page County, Virginia: The Luray-Page County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor Center (LPCCC) has named Chris Jenkins as Chair of the Board of Directors and announced the 2021 Board of Directors to lead the organization in its mission of promoting tourism and growing business for its members and the community.

"I view myself as entrepreneurially-minded and love to brainstorm, plan, and execute quality ideas. I understand how a tourism-driven economy works and understand that our local economy consists of many types of businesses and industries. I think that good and open communication about the direction of business and industry here is a chief ingredient that will help us all succeed," said Chris Jenkins.

Jenkins has been a member of the Chamber since 2014 and has been serving on our Board of Directors since 2020. Chris and his wife, Lindi, own and operate Faithbrooke Barn & Vineyard, a local wedding venue, in Luray. Along with running Faithbrooke, Jenkins also does work to help organizations in our community. Every year, they host a Thanksgiving Dinner at Faithbrooke, where all the proceeds are donated to the Page Free Clinic.
